

Kitty in the Straw (To the tune of “Turkey in the Straw”)

I went out to milk and I didn't know how.
I milked a goat instead of a cow.
Saw a chicken in the mud just a-stompin' on the ground.
She hoisted up her foot and she danced all around.

Kitty in the hay (ECHO: Kitty in the hay),
Kitty in the straw (ECHO: Kitty in the straw),
Well, wake 'em up or shake 'em up,
Any way at all!
We're whoopin' up a tune called
Kitty in the Straw!

Oh, a bullfrog jumped in the middle of a spring.
The water was so cold that he could not sing.
He tied his tail to a hickory stump.
He reared and he pitched but he couldn't give a jump!

Kitty in the hay (ECHO: Kitty in the hay),
Kitty in the straw (ECHO: Kitty in the straw),
Well, wake 'em up or shake 'em up,
Any way at all!
We're whoopin' up a tune called
Kitty in the Straw!

Well, if cows had wings and snakes had hair,
And automobiles went a-flying through the air,
If watermelons grew on a huckleberry vine,
We'd have winter in the summer time!

Kitty in the hay (ECHO: Kitty in the hay),
Kitty in the straw (ECHO: Kitty in the straw),
Well, wake 'em up or shake 'em up,
Any way at all!
We're whoopin' up a tune called
Kitty in the Straw!

Well, I had an old hen and she had a wooden leg.
I begged and I begged but she wouldn't lay an egg.
I poured hot water up and down her leg,
And the darned ole hen laid a hard boiled egg!

Kitty in the hay (ECHO: Kitty in the hay),
Kitty in the straw (ECHO: Kitty in the straw),
Well, wake 'em up or shake 'em up,
Any way at all!
We're whoopin' up a tune called
Kitty in the Straw!

Kitty in the hay (ECHO: Kitty in the hay),
Kitty in the straw (ECHO: Kitty in the straw),
Well, wake 'em up, shake 'em up,
Or any way at all!
We're whoopin' up a tune called
Kitty in the Straw!
